

A Message from Supervisor Frank P. Petrone:

To All Huntington Residents:

The Town and the Town Council are monitoring the situation with respect to any possible outbreak of swine flu in the Town and working closely with State and Suffolk County health officials so we can respond quickly, if needed.

Check back here regularly for any updates.

In the meantime, here are some helpful links to State, County and Federal websites and some e-brochures describing measures you can take to protect yourself and your family.
